"LADIES' DAY" AT PRESS CLUB.

Newspaper Men Hold First of a Series of Monthly Receptions.

The first of a series of monthly "ladies' days" was held yesterday afternoon and evening at the National Press Club. In the evening a mixed program was presented, including a series of motion pictures taken on a recent tour of the world shown by the courtesy of C. L. Worthington.

Other numbers were baritone solos by Earl Carbau, accompanied by Mrs. Carbau; selections by Miss Ruth Bronson, violinist, accompanied by Miss Mary Bellington; and a monologue by R. H. Davidson.

The rooms of the club were attractively decorated by Gude. The Boveillo orchestra also contributed musical numbers to the program.

CARDEN INCIDENT CLOSED.

It was announced yesterday at the State Department that the matter of the interview said to have been given at New York by Sir Lionel Carden, former British minister to Mexico, on the occasion of his sailing for England last month, is now considered a closed incident.

The State Department is satisfied with the reputation of the published interview as unauthorized which was delivered by Ambassador Spring-Rice here soon as it came to his attention.

BRITAIN NOW ACCLAIMS NORTON LATEST HERO

Submarine Commander Directed Craft Among German Fleet, Sank Destroyer and Rushed to Safety.

FIRE BUT TWO TORPEDOES

By JOHN C. FOSTER.

London, Oct. 8.—The naval hero of England today is Lieut. Commander Max K. Horton, commander of the British submarine E-3, who has added to his laurels by making a raid into German waters and sinking a German torpedo boat destroyer off the mouth of the river Ems. Lieut. Commander Horton's previous exploit had been the destruction of the German cruiser Heia and it is unofficially reported that the E-3 had sunk a German cruiser during her operations off the Ems River, but this report had not been officially confirmed by the admiralty.

When the E-3 returned to Harwich harbor she flew two flags bearing a skull and cross bones, signifying that she had been successful on her dash into German waters.

Members of the crew have given the following details of the triumph achieved on Tuesday:

"The E-3 ventured into the midst of a German fleet keeping watch for an opportunity to make an attack upon a detached ship. One of the German torpedo boat destroyers steaming very slowly across a fair track at 600 yards. The submarine determined to attack this vessel. Two torpedoes were fired five seconds apart. The first missed, but the second struck the German vessel amidships. The German ship was wrecked at once, the debris flying high in the air.
She rolled over on her side and went to the bottom."

A "SILENT" CAMPAIGN.

"Voiceless Speech" Parlor in Sub-franchise Western Fight.

A novel method to attract the attention of women voters in the States where the Congressional Union for Women Suffrage is waging its anti-Democratic campaign is the "voiceless speech," the original idea of Mrs. Edna S. Latimer, in charge of the campaign in Kansas.

The "voiceless speech" consists of a series of about 100 sheets of paper on which are printed messages to voters.
One of the campaigners stands on a platform erected on a prominent street corner and turns the pages of the voiceless speech so that the crowds gathered around may read.

Mrs. George Ames, president of the District of Columbia branch of the Wilson and Marshall League, yesterday declared in favor of the new election policy of the Congressional Union, and has offered her co-operative work against the Democrats.

Miss Alice Paul, chairman of the union, has returned from the annual convention of the Woman's Political Union of New Jersey.

BRITISH WILL CLOSE THEIR EYES

Officials of the State Department are satisfied that the British government will make no attempt to molest the German steamship Kronprinzessin Cecilie, the Hamburg-American liner now held at Bar Harbor, Me. If the vessel is towed to a more southern harbor in order to save her from being damaged by the ice along the Maine coast.

HERE ARE THE GUNS ON WHICH ENGLAND DEPENDS TO KEEP GERMANY'S NAVY QUIET

DECK OF BRITISH BATTLESHIP DREADNOUGHT

A recent report of the British admiralty says that the North Sea is absolutely safe for commerce, that there is not a sign of a German fleet. This statement, however, is not to be taken too literally, as the British navy is not yet strong enough to keep the North Sea open to British merchant vessels.

CHARGE TO GRAND JURY.

Prosecution and Not Prosecution Is Covington's Keynote.

Prosecution and not prosecution was the keynote of Chief Justice Covington's first charge to a grand jury yesterday in Criminal Court No. 1. He cautioned the jurors against presenting persons upon unfounded accusations and remembered that their oath of secrecy should be kept inviolate for all time.

Samuel G. Eberly was selected as foreman by the court. The other grand jurors are:

George W. Fairfax, R. Lee Horton, Julian B. Lepleux, John W. Osborn, Samuel Lucas, Harry L. Alden, William E.
Johnson, George B. Jackson, J. Elmer

p. m. This jubilee is held annually to inaugurate the work of the winter season.

ANOTHER GERMAN FLIER DROPS BOMBS ON PARIS

Two Explosives Do Little Damage.
Invader Flees Before French Airmen.

Paris, Oct. 8.—A German Taube aéroplane flew over Paris this morning and dropped two bombs. The first bomb fell on the suburban railway station of St.
Denis. The freight forwarding offices were wrecked but no one was injured.
Panic ensued in the market nearby among the hundreds of women who were shopping.

The second bomb fell on the old fortifications at Aubervilliers, near some police dog kennels. The guardian of the kennels was wounded. His wife and daughter also were struck, the latter seriously.

The Taube then headed toward the center of Paris, but a French biplane suddenly appeared in the sky and, circling northeast, the German outdianced his pursuer.

The French troops stationed in Paris have been ordered not to fire upon hostile aeroplanes because of the danger to the populace from falling bullets.

ALEXANDRIA RED MEN ADMIT 244 MEMBERS

Degree Work for Biggest Class Ever Initiated in Virginia Is Performed. by Logan Tribe, of Washington.

PARADE FEATURES CELEBRATION

Alexandria, Va., Oct. 8.—This was Red Men's night in Alexandria. It marked the initiation of a class of 244 candidates, the largest class ever before initiated in the State of Virginia and the ceremonies were preceded by a big parade, featured by music, red fire in abundance and the war whoops of the "braves" and also the "palefaces." The 244 "palefaces," who were initiated into the folds of the Red Men, marched in the parade.

The parade was suggested by several hundred Washingtonians representing the various tribes in Washington.
The parade was marshaled by Kenneth W. Ogden, chief marshal, of the American Indian Guard Band and four members of the police force, Sgt. Bettie, Policemen Ferguson, Bell and Campbell, members of the Red Men and Members of the Red Men and Tribe marched in a body in the parade.
The new members will be divided among the two tribes as follows: Seminole, 126, and Osceola, 118.

Conferring of the degree work took place in the hall of the new Richmond Theater. Immediately following there was a banquet which was served in Odd Fellow's Hall. During the evening several of the visitors made short addresses and it was after midnight before the Washington delegation, in a special train, left for their homes.

Members of the degree team of Logan Tribe, of Washington, consisting of the degree team, were J. H. Hummer, prophet; James A. Madison, sashem; T. H. Dennis, senior sashem; P. A. Madison, junior sashem; F. W. Shepherd, first sashem; T. Wintermyer, second sashem; Edward Mastin, Charles Schiele, F. M. Elcheberger, H. Danner, warriors; Edward Souders, Edward Kuba, Z. Brown, Burrows, scouts; George Sedgwick, E.

Louthan, W. C. McKim, runners.

Among the distinguished guests attending was J. Ben Moore, great sashem of Virginia.

The following were aides to Kenneth W. Ogden, chief marshal: Thomas H.
May, F. C. Glasgow, John W. Schofield, from Seminole Tribe; J. W. Garnett, E.
F. Downham and Harvey Tiger from Osceola Tribe.

Falling from a shifting freight car at Potomac railroad yards, Alexandria County, early this morning, Thomas H.
Morton, forty-nine years old, a freight brake-man who lived at 414 Eleventh street northwest, Washington, was so badly injured that he died half an hour after reaching the Alexandria Hospital.

A committee composed of G. Washington, Lewis, W. H. Helms, W. A.
Moore, Jr., representing the Alexandria Automobile Association, yesterday urged Representative C. C. Carlin to use his influence against the proposed war tax on automobiles.

Representative Carlin escorted the members of the committee to the office of Senator Thomas S. Martin, where the matter was discussed. There are about 150 automobiles in this city.

Funeral services for Miss Florence R.
Smith will be held at 3:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the residence, 305 South St. Asaph street. Services will be conducted by Rev. W. J. Morton, pastor of Christ P. E. Church, and burial will be in St. Paul's Cemetery.

Charles H. Callahan, past master of Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons, tonight attended the reunion of the lodges of the seventh Masonic district of Virginia, held at Brandy, Va. P. K. Ran-man, grand master of Masons of Virginia, and the officers of Fredericksburg Lodge also attended.

Chairmen of the various committees in charge of the Sunday school parade and song festival, which will be held Sunday afternoon, have completed plans for the affair. Thomas C. Dicks, secretary of the Virginia Sunday School Association, and other officers of the association will attend.

Funeral services for Miss Augusta Fleet Parrott will be held at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning at the residence, 312 Camden street. Services will be conducted by Rev. Dr. John Lee Allison, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church. Burial will be in St. Paul's Cemetery.
